Hey,
look at the world, it seems hopeless.
It looks like the whole world is about to die.

Huang, what are you talking about?

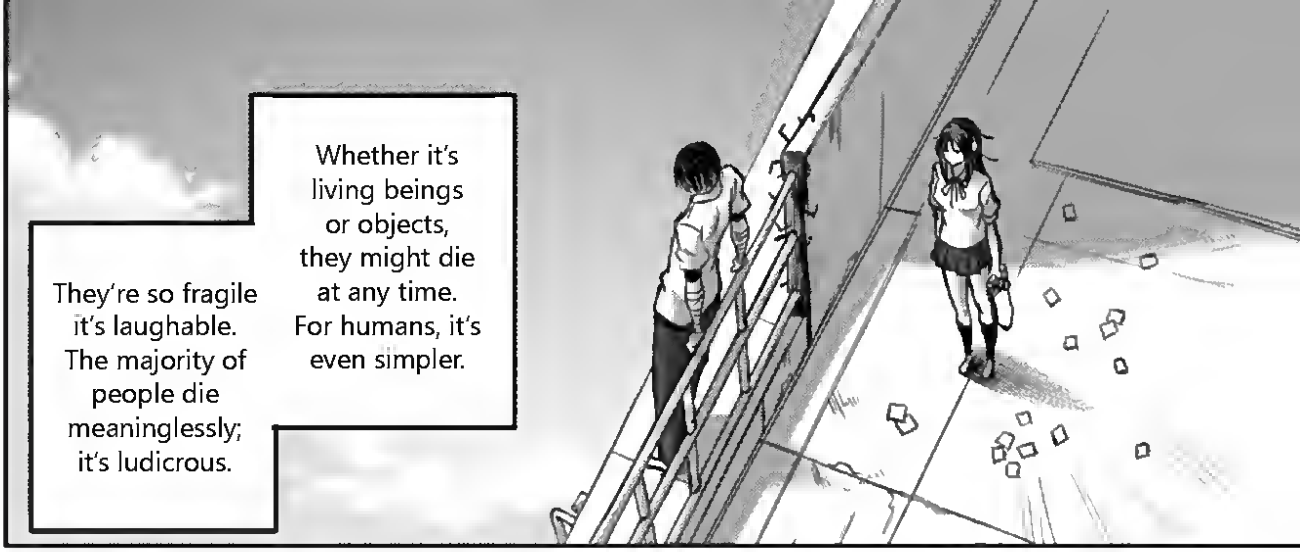
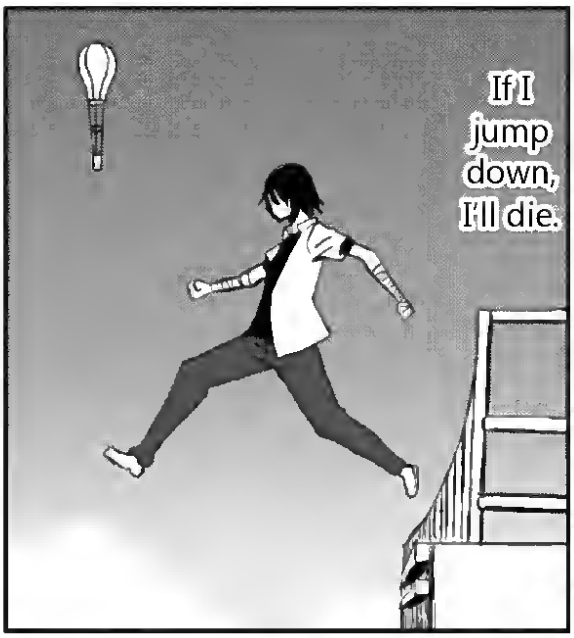
Chapter 1: HP Boy
Yu Pin Han

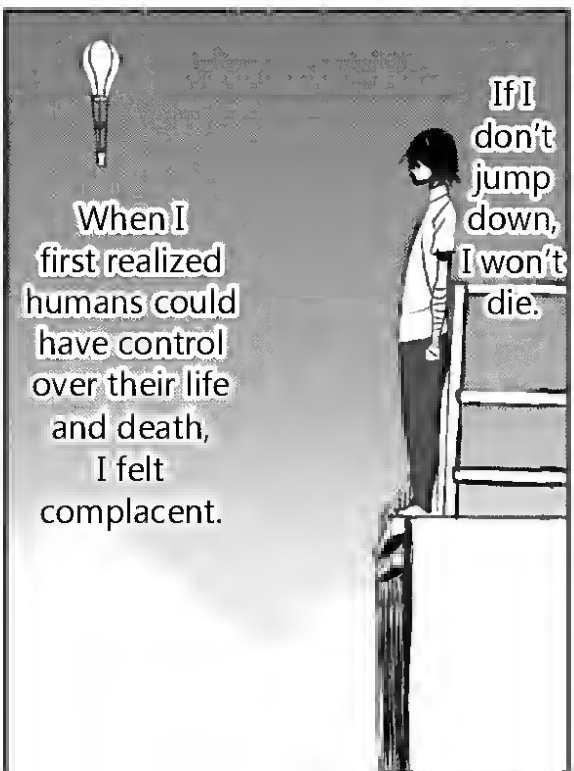


Whether it's living beings or objects, they might die at any time. For humans, it's even simpler.
They're so fragile it's laughable. The majority of people die meaninglessly; it's ludicrous.



If I jump down, I'll die.

Today, I'm standing on the ruins of the world's tallest building.



When I first realized humans could have control over their life and death, I felt complacent.
If I don't jump down, I won't die.

What do you mean 'go down'?! Miu, you want me to go down to a world that's about to die at any moment? That's evil of you! I would rather stand on top of this giant corpse!
No, I want you to jump down.
Oh, that's right. You should go down, Huang. Stop rambling so much.
So you want me to die that badly... Anyway, this place being able to make me feel at ease aside, there's nowhere else for me in this world!
Ehh?

Giant Corpse in the City Centre

This building's HP was 0 from the start—I don't know when this enormous structure came into existence. It looks as if this was originally for the sake of building the world's tallest building, but due to a lack of finances during construction, the project was shut down and reduced to these ruins, resulting in the world's largest man-made trash.

Anyway,
in the old movies, the protag's mood would influence the weather.
It really is an amazing ability.
You're still talking?

If I were the protag, I would use it indiscriminately on myself.
The heavens would certainly be crying for me right now; a large storm with thunder and lightning.

These are generally the kinds of thoughts I have excessively.
A certain psychologist once said, "People living in this world believe themselves to be protags, that the world revolves around them" ...
This has been used in so many LNs and anime that it's been worn out. I hate old-fashioned things the most, yet I'm living in the old-fashioned ways. I'm worried about there being a double-standard.

The sun is shining on me so much, I'm soaked with sweat! This heat is going to fucking kill me!
And currently, not only is it not raining, of all times, it's a clear day without any clouds in sight!
Right now, even if I had a movie protag's rain summoning abilities, there's no way to make it rain instantly!
t/n chuunibyou occurs around 8th grade
Who has twisted ideas?! (怒`Д´) I have a sane reason, you know!
Even at your age, you're still like this.
aren't those just the twisted ideas of an 8th grader?
Although I don't detest that you're rambling on like you're in heat, that everything is constantly killing us?

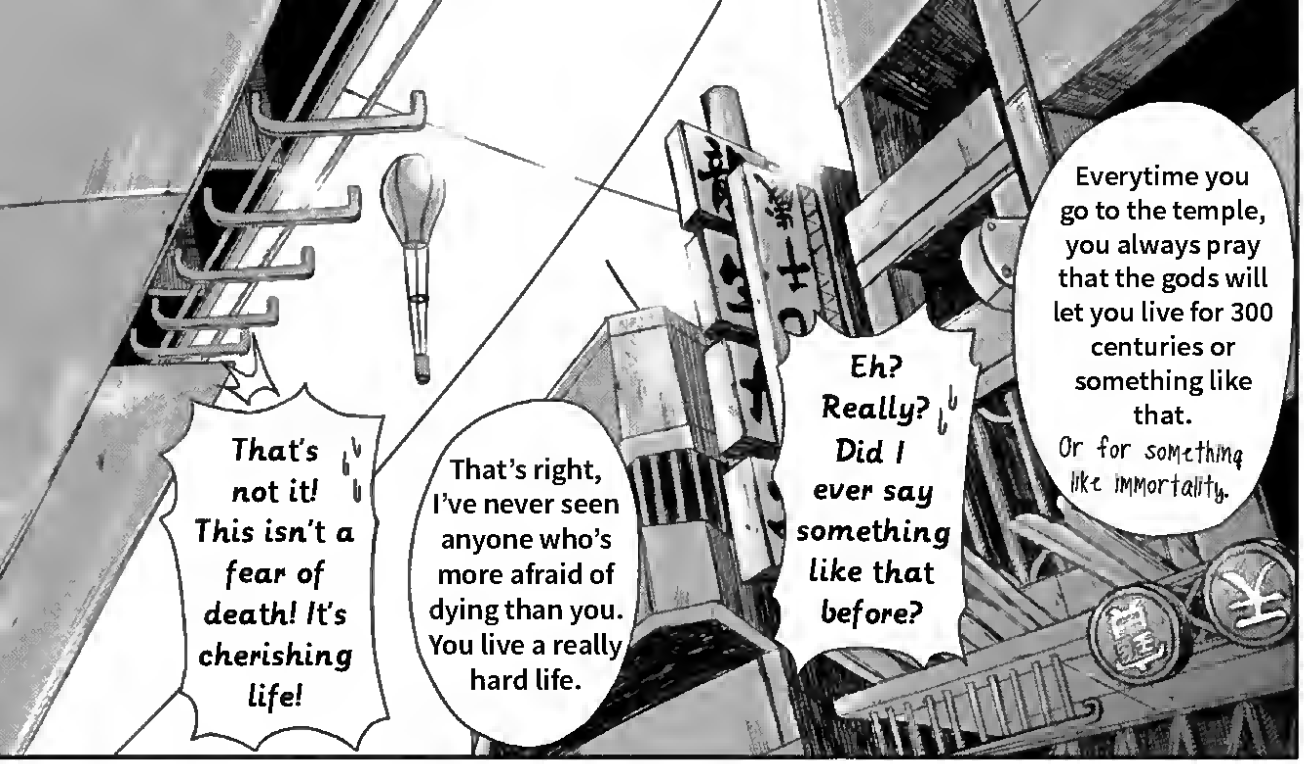
Or do you not feel,
!?

Huh?

The sun's rays are killing me!
Look!
The person smoking next to me is poisoning me as well!
WHOOOO...!
Look!
Gradually, they make someone lose a number of years, a number of days, a number of hours, a number of seconds! This world is killing itself without even realizing it!
HI☆
Even a friend greeting me by clapping me on the shoulder reduces my HP! Every slight touch and injury will make one die earlier!

Everyone else can't see their own HP, so they think that getting clapped on your shoulder won't kill you... In reality, it'll give me a stroke before I'm 50!
And you're saying that it's not serious!? This is a mortal wound! Later on, my shoulder will get deposed! And it'll all be because of that one slap from decades ago!
Ah.
That's right, how did I forget? I remember now.
What !?
Point !
You're really afraid of dying.



Everytime you go to the temple, you always pray that the gods will let you live for 300 centuries or something like that.
Or for something like immortality.
Eh? Really? Did I ever say something like that before?
That's right, I've never seen anyone who's more afraid of dying than you. You live a really hard life.
That's not it! This isn't a fear of death! It's cherishing life!

That's right, I remember now, after seeing your injured hand...
You can see the weaknesses of everything as well, knowing how to attack in the most effective manner, and you're also able to help certain things enrich their blood.....right?
Who are you telling these attributes to?
Huh? Yeah, so what?
Is there anything wrong?
.....No, I just wanted to confirm it.

Hmm? A large building.....?
Even if it's a large building, I can level it within ten seconds.
.....but this type of ability probably won't help the current situation.....
She's right, this is also one of my abilities.
What is this scene?
Ehh? W-What?

It seems like, to save a lot of people, I razed a building to the ground...!? When did I do something like that?
Eh...It's nothing..... Some scenes flashed through my mind, startling me a bit.
Ah? What's up with you, Huang? Why did you suddenly freeze?

It feels like my memory isn't really coherent... Do you feel the same?
Is that so... My mind is kind of slow today...
Yeah... Maybe so? Your hand might have gotten injured because of that, but have you ever been that heroic before?

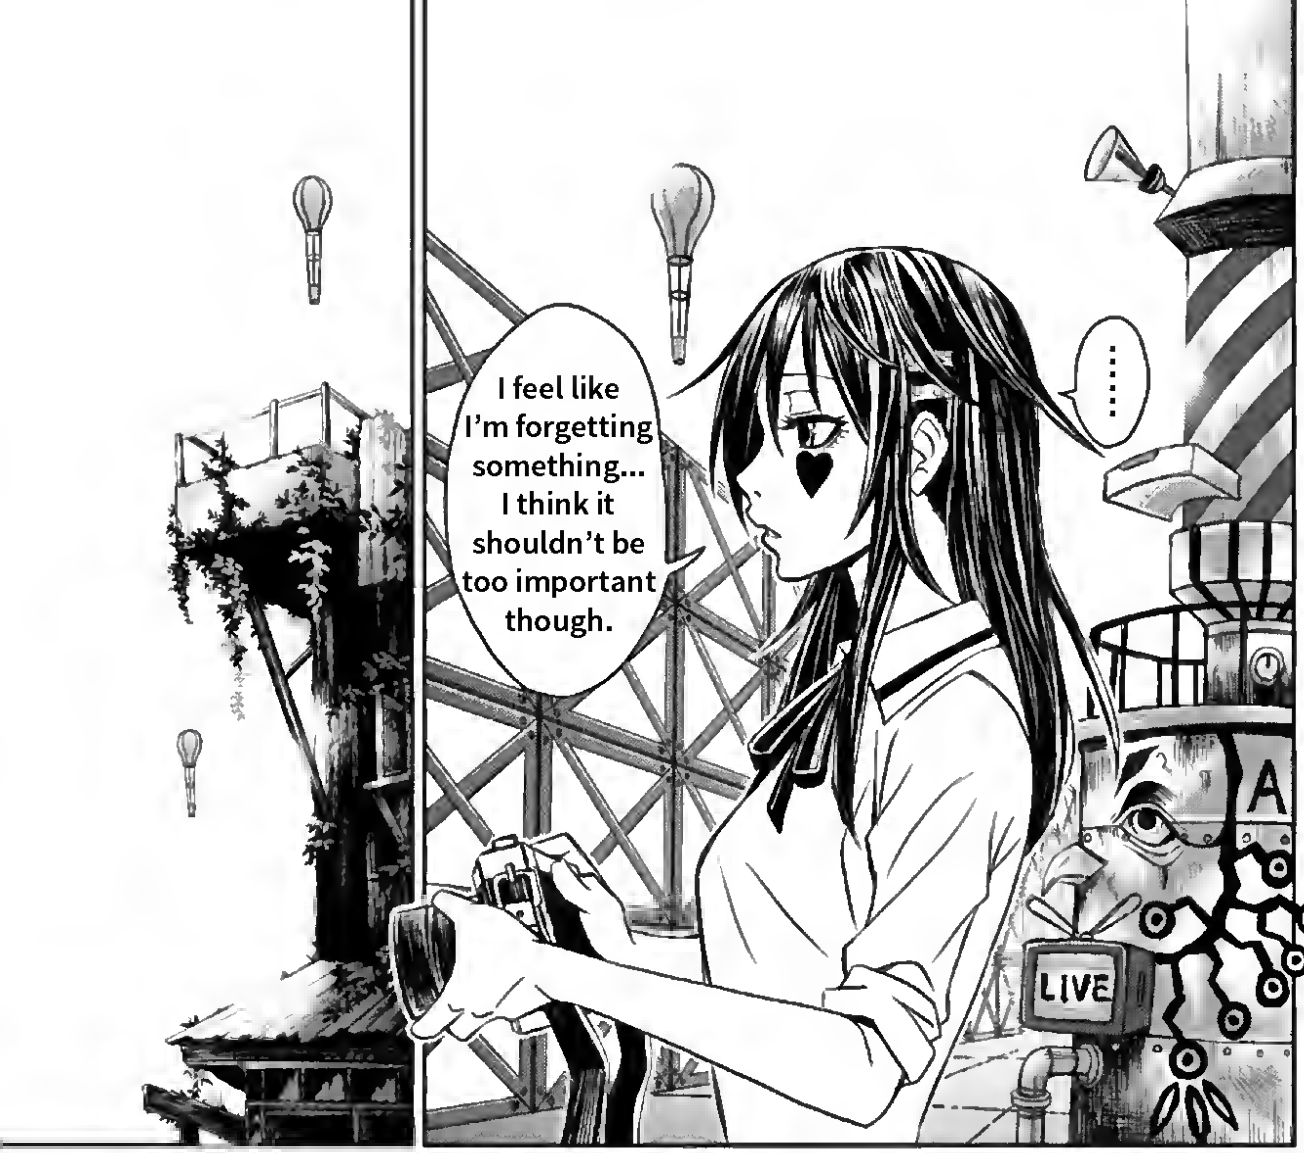
Euh... S-Sorry ...
Being with you here is tiring, you know? (怒`Д´)
Ah? Whose fault do you think it is?
What are you talking about, I'm being serious here!
I'm probably just kind of sleepy!
Conclusion Go home bathe and sleep!
I'm fine, just that my head is a little dazed...



I feel like I'm forgetting something... I think it shouldn't be too important though.

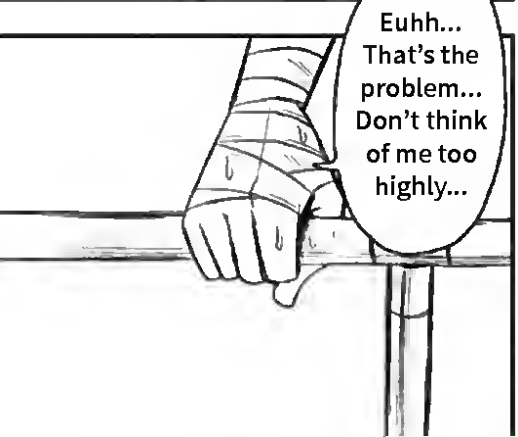
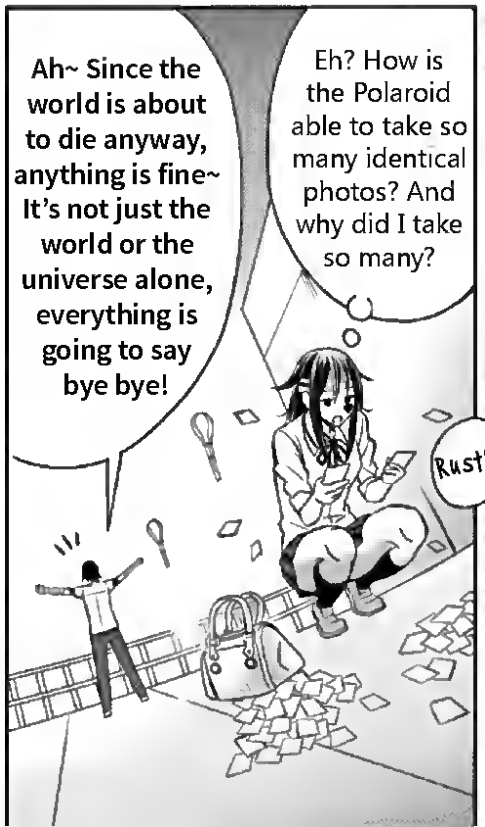
Oh? So the world's only prophet, and the only person who might be able to save everything is engaged in corrupt work?



Euhh... That's the problem... Don't think of me too highly...



Ah~ Since the world is about to die anyway, anything is fine~ It's not just the world or the universe alone, everything is going to say bye bye!
Eh? How is the Polaroid able to take so many identical photos? And why did I take so many?

HP
Aside from being able to see an ugly HP bar, what else can I do?!
I can only look on helplessly as the world dies away!
To attack an enemy, you have to first know what it is... But I have no idea why it's being destroyed...
In addition, there isn't anyone that believes that the world's HP is about to reach 0!
Why do I have to have so much pressure being the only one who knows?!
Why do I have to go save a world that everyone doesn't care about—
And when I don't even know how to save the world!?
It makes no sense!

I think that this kind of world...
Uwaa... You talk exactly like an editor... Do you want to become a mangaka?
there wouldn't be this kind of story where even the enemy is unknown!
If this world was in a shonen manga,
Wouldn't it be an ardorous battle!?
It'd be cut, right?

I wouldn't believe in some apocalypse like that.
Huh? Me?
Hey! You believe in me, right, Miu?

I think that even if the planet were to be destroyed, this island would continue to drift along the cosmos.

I'm 100% certain that nothing bad will happen, because even if an apocalypse happened, it wouldn't affect Taiwan.
It would only affect countries such as America or Japan, don't they love depicting it like that in their movies and anime?
Beep
Wua! Miu, why did you suddenly hit me? Have you run out of jokes? Or are to trying to take advantage of the situation to increase your moe attribute?
It hurts...! Hold on a second! Are you for real? This will make me get rheumarthritis when I'm forty years old!

Using that kind of conveyance, I'll die... Ahh, that's not it! I wanted to ask you whether you heard a beeping sound starting from just now?
I suddenly feel like using your body to convey my emotions.
Euh... First, drop your dangerous weapon... Eh? Wait! Where did you pull out such a large one from!? Are you trying to kill me?
Beep
Huh? No, I didn't.

Looking back, I realized it was because of the strike I caused two pages ago.

My expression was as horrid as it could get.
Ahh ...
Ai ya ya.
Miu and I watched as the world began to crumble away at the fastest pace.
Afterwards, all that was left was a white light.

And so, the world perished.

Wua aaa! I let the whole world down!
Aiya, Huang, we failed to save the world again.
What 'again'? Have you been scared silly? We're falling right now, so why are you so calm?
Point
C-Can't refute that...
You still dare to complain about it? This time it was your hit that caused the world to be destroyed.
But, it's fortunate that I remembered about that just now, otherwise it would all have been over. It's always at the critical final moment that I remember it.
Huh? Always?

It's not only you, this time, even I forgot.

Because my ability's limits are too large, everytime I use it, there's a random BUG, causing residual effects.

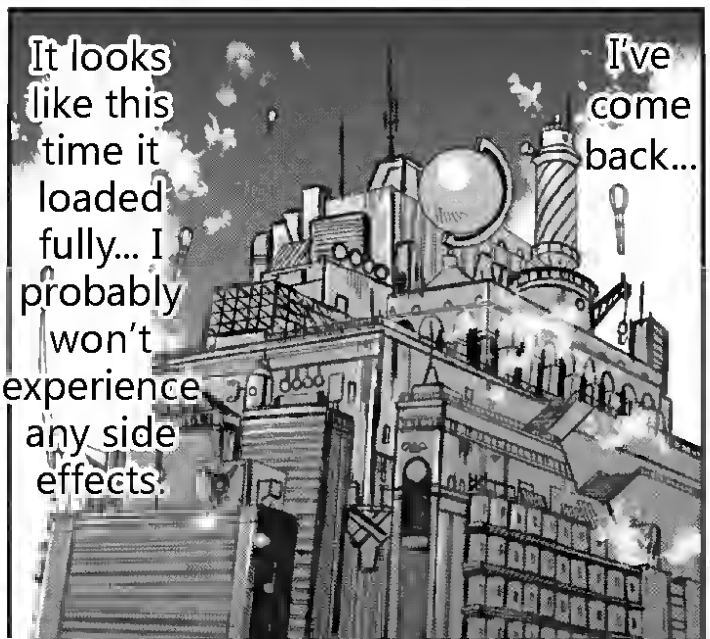
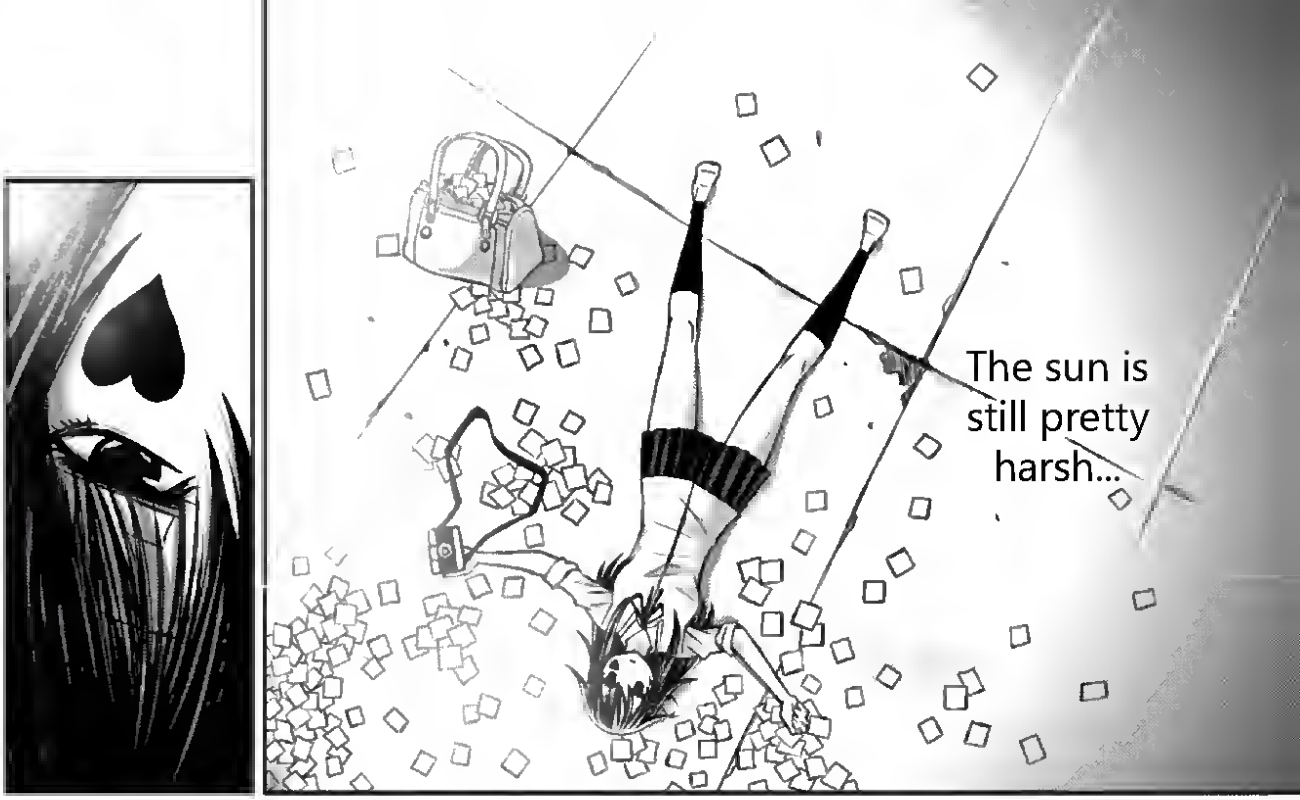
Just how many times has it been repeated?

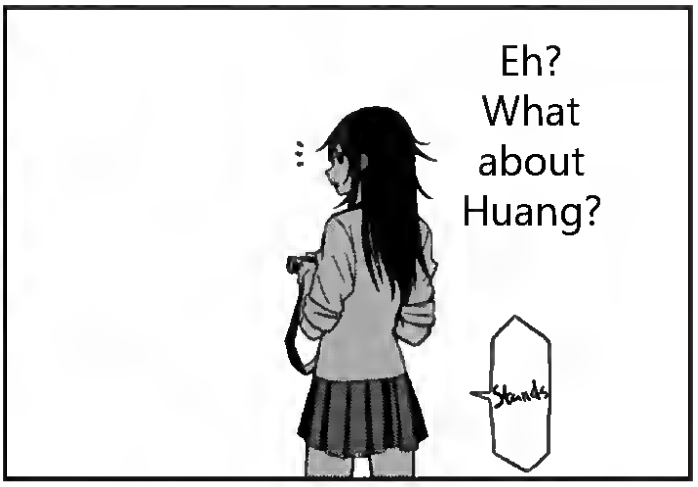


It looks like this time it loaded fully... I probably won't experience any side effects.
I've come back...



The sun is still pretty harsh...

Hmm?
Ha Ha Ha ...



Eh? What about Huang?
Stands

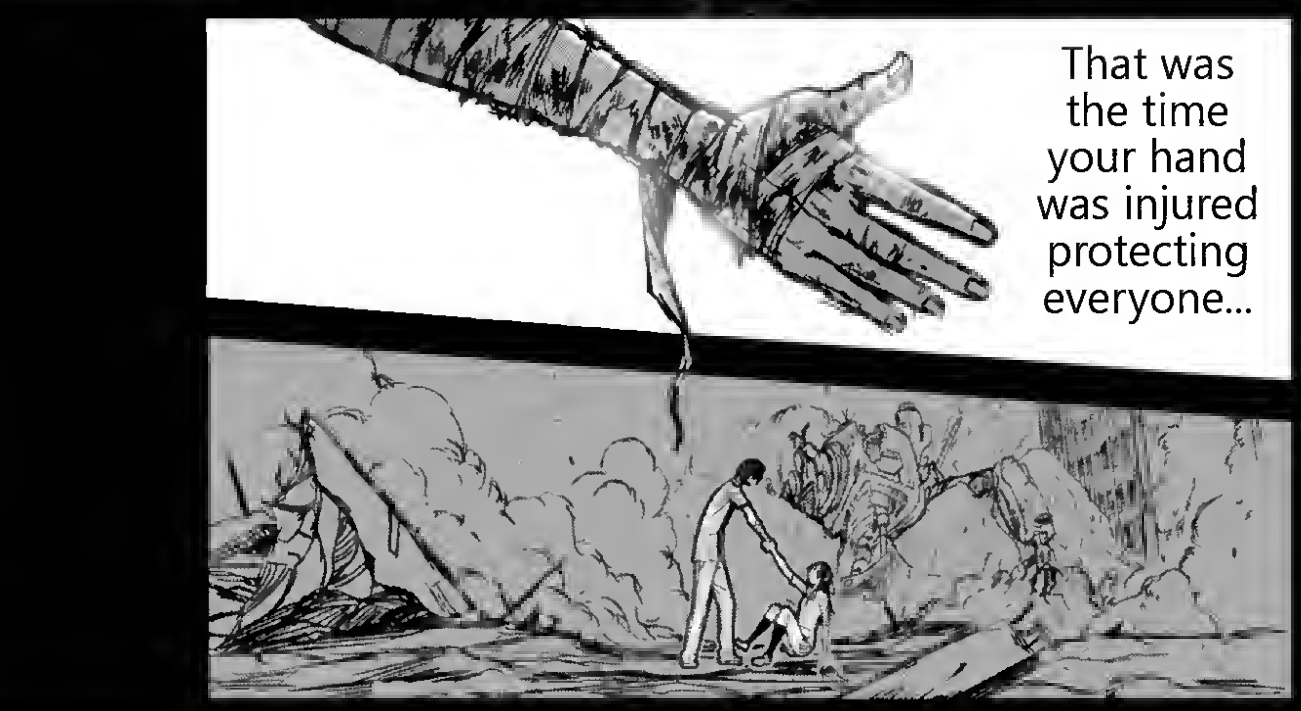
Miu, I think I dreamt of something just now—

Ha Ha Ha.
Ahh... The HP is near the end, it looks like the world is going to die today.

I don't know why, but today, I feel like I can easily destroy the world.
In my dream, I destroyed the world with one strike... But after I woke up, I feel like I grasped some new ability.
But you just watch me.
I'm going to use this ability...
to save the world.

I thought of the you from that time...
.....!
At that moment...

Once again... I failed...
I'm Sorry ...



That was the time your hand was injured protecting everyone...

After that...
As a recorder, facing the back of this hero, I took a new photo.

If this was a movie, and if even the director had forgotten the actual title, since this is both the beginning and the end, we should start here and fill it in as we go.
